

STRATEGIC INTEREST GROUP

Developing Community

Coalition members have been hard at work to help create family fun community events. The events will help engage residents and help unify our community. The coalition's latest event is "Thankful for Our Community" which will be held on November 19, 2022.

