Dear Patient:

This letter is to inform you that I have taken a position at the Naval Airstation in Corpus Christi. My last day providing pediatric services at Community Action will be February 7, 2025.

You have the right to choose your health care provider, and Community Action Health Center remains committed to fully supporting your decision. If you wish to obtain medical records, please contact our office. Community Action Health Center will continue to provide pediatric health care. Should you wish to continue care and schedule an appointment with another Community Action Health Center pediatrician, or should you have any questions about your child's future care or treatment needs please contact our office.

Thank you for trusting me to provide your care at Community Action. Please keep any scheduled appointments. Please call our office or send a message through the patient portal if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
